SPRING INTRO TO DANCE WORKSHOP May 2 – June 6, 2018

This workshop is designed for the new student or a student who is considering adding a new dance discipline to their current Dance curriculum. As it is essentially a trial for the student, the usual dress code will not be enforced. If you need to purchase anything, please check the 2017-2018 Dress Code for the proper attire. All students will however be required to have the proper shoes for the various classes – more specifically: Ballet Slippers for Ballet, Tap Shoes for Tap and Jazz Shoes for Jazz. Again, we recommend reviewing the current Dress code for the appropriate type of each. Note that shoes are available for purchase at the Studio. To do so, please call the Studio to set up a shoe fitting appointment no later than April 22 so as to assure that we will be able to make the needed shoes available by the first class.
