Nancy Dianne Studio presents:

BALLET PERFORMANCE WORKSHOP – “PETER AND THE WOLF”

We are exploring the opportunity to conduct a seven week long workshop geared toward students 6th Grade through High School which will include Ballet Technique classes as well as rehearsal time culminating in an informal Studio performance of the ballet Peter and the Wolf.

Peter and the Wolf is a symphonic fairy tale for children composed by Sergei Prokofiev in 1936. It enlists a narrator to tell the delightful children’s fable while instruments in the orchestra represent each character. The roles of the tale include Peter and his Grandfather, along with the Bird, the Cat, the Wolf, the Duck and her Ducklings. The story also requires a group of Hunters and the corps of the Meadow.

Participants in this workshop will gain strength, technique and performance quality as they are part of a Student Company working toward a common goal. It will also provide a preview of the type of work and experience that goes into becoming a member of a performance company. For those who wish to gain more performance experience, while not yet arranged, there may be additional opportunities to perform in the community as well.

Important details regarding this Workshop:

- The Workshop is open to Ballet Students ages 12 and above, as well as any Jazz or Modern Students ages 12 and above
- The Workshop will be conducted on Tuesdays and Thursdays April 24 through June 7, culminating with a Studio performance of approximately 30 minutes duration to be held at the Studio on Sunday, June 10 at 2:30 and 4:00 PM
- Auditions for cast members, alternates and understudies will take place during class and rehearsal sessions on April 24 and April 26
- The workshop will be open to dancers not currently enrolled at the Studio
- Dancers must have excellent consistent attendance at both classes as well as rehearsals
- Jazz or Modern Students participating will need to purchase a pair of pink Ballet Slippers (available at the Studio).
- Seating at performances will be limited due to space constraints at the Studio. Consequently, viewing will be limited and prioritized to the parents of performers initially.
